Dear Incarcerated Parent,

Your child support obligation (how much you are ordered to pay by the court) does not automatically stop or change when you become incarcerated. While you are in prison, your unpaid child support, along with interest continues to add up.

Due to the change in your circumstances (incarceration), you may be eligible for a modification of your child support payment. This means that the court may lower your monthly child support and/or medical support obligation.

If you are interested in having your child support possibly lowered, please completely fill out the attached application. Upon receipt of your application, our office will contact the other parent (custodial parent) on your child support case to notify them of this process and to ask them for information regarding the case. The court will make a final decision regarding a modification based on all available evidence.

Sincerely,
